

Glad She's A Woman

Bobby Goldsboro

As she sit by the window
She's busy with work
But her mind isn't on
What she's doing

She thinks back to morning
The feeling she had
And she's glad she's a woman

And you can see the glow
On her face and in her eyes
You can see she's changing everyday
From the little girl I married
From a girl into a woman

And she's glad she's a woman

Late at night
When I'm sleeping
She'll tug at my side
Wake me up just to
Tell me she's happy

I put my hand on the life
She carries inside
Then she smiles
And says, hello, daddy

And my heart could almost burst
From the love she brings to me
I can see she's changing everyday
From the little girl I married
From a girl into a woman

And I'm glad she's a woman
