

Mere Words

Bobby McFerrin

All these songs of love's first flight they don't sing ours just right so I stayed up have the night to write a song of love for you there are the words that say these things but I can't think of one that brings all the joy that I could sing in a song of love for you this is crazy

I'm so hazy and not so sure of myself all the love I feel in my heart for you a mere song couldn't handle so I'll abandon this project who am I foolin'
I know full well I just thought if you didn't know yet that I need your love to see me through yes I'm a failure

I couldn't see my way through to the end I know we're not through, my friend there's so much for us left to do cause there's no one quite like you there's no one quite like you
