

I Ain't Got To Love Nobody Else

Bobby Womack

I ain't got to love nobody else
I ain't got to love nobody else
'Cause I got you

Now if the whole world will turn its back on me
I wouldn't lose a thing, no, no, no, because I got my baby
And to me she's every everything
That's why I can say

I ain't got to love nobody else
I ain't got to love nobody else
'Cause I got you, I got you

One more thing I wanna say right here

Now I don't need
I don't need, I don't need no friends at all
'Cause when I'm feelin', I'm feelin', I'm feelin' down
She's the only one I can call

I ain't got to love nobody else
I ain't got to love nobody else
And I got you

Now if the ten most richest woman in the world wanted me
I'll have to say, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no
I want to be with my baby, my baby

And I ain't got to love nobody else
I ain't got to love nobody else
I ain't got to love nobody else
I ain't got to love nobody else

I ain't got to love nobody else
I ain't got to love nobody else
I ain't got to love nobody else
