

Trying hard to duplicate the scene
You've seen so much in magazines
It's not what you decide inside
It's what you try to hide

You've got a thousand lines
You think you're from the U.S.A.
We've got a problem now
It's time to seize the day

Everytime I hear you talking
Everytime I see you walking
I just need to be someone you believe (2x)

Packing knives and picking fights with me
Your big mouth keeps your dignity
You're like an actor saying lines
You're not the star this time

'Cause I won't listen now
Because I've heard your shit before
It's time to realize
It's time to even the score

Everytime I hear you talking
Everytime I see you walking
I just need to be someone you believe (2x)

There's a scene to yourself (8x)
