

Land On Me

Bodyjar

Not one to see, not one to feel
Not one to be a part
Of the way that you think things should be
Set out your rules today
And say that you won't be the same

How could I ever respect you
When you push out this feeling I get
When I'm near you it wasn't meant to Fuckin' meant to land on me

Not one to say, not one to think
Not one to be a part
Of the way that you think things should be
Set out your rules today
And say that you won't be the same

Tell me will you land on me today
Land on me in every single way
Say what you mean
Always say what you mean
Tell me
