

Your Way of Thinking

Bodyjar

When you think of how
It may change
If everyone was just like you
Would it satisfy

To see the world change for you
Maybe for a while
You'd sit back and laugh but
Not for very long realising that
You're not so strong

Wake up and see
Wake up and

Realise
Don't fantasise
Fucking categorise
People from what they own
Don't ever try
To see through my eyes
'Cause you'll never understand

Wake up and see
Wake up and

I can see through your eyes
You're the one I despise

Wake up and see, wake up and see
Wake up and see, wake up and
