Bombay Bicycle Club

And he took whats left and he made for the door oh so fast
while his act of theft put a smile on his face but it wont last it wont last no

Will you decide to put this behind you
will you decide to put this behind you

And I gave my coat to the one I loved we would walk
we would walk
but she changed the pace and she turned her face she said its not us, were not old enough

will you decide to put this behind you now

will you decide to put this behind you now
