

Thank You

Bomshel

Angry, I could be
Could curse you and hate you
That would be easy
Cause I'm broken
And holdin'
These shattered pieces, believe it

That all that's left of me
Is what you left of me

I'm standing up as a fighter
Walking away a survivor
Ain't lookin' back
And here on my own I am happy
You're leavin' me only taught me who I am
So thank you

Well the first night
Was the worst night
You had me thinkin' without you that I'd die
But you know what
The sun came
And thanks to you I finally had to wake up

Now the truth is
I can do this

I'm standing up as a fighter
Walking away a survivor
Ain't lookin' back
And here on my own I am happy
You're leavin' me only taught me who I am
So thank you

Cause I'm standing up as a fighter
Walking away a survivor
Ain't lookin' back, no
And here on my own I am happy
You're leavin' me only taught me who I am
So thank you
Thank you
