

Superman Tonight

Bon Jovi

1. There's something about you
I wanna rescue
I don't even know you
So what does that mean

2. Maybe I'm cynical
Painfully logical
You're tragic and beautiful
And that's good enough for me

X: You're looking for a hero
But it's just my old tattoo
Tonight I swear I'd sell my soul
To be a hero for you

R1: Who's gonna save you when the stars fall from your sky?
Who's gonna pull you in when the tide gets too high?
Who's gonna hold you when you turn out the lights?
I won't lie
I wish that I could be your superman tonight

3. If somebody sent you
An angel to save you
What would you tell him
To turn him away

4. That your heart don't break?
That your lips don't kiss?
That life is just a lie?
That heaven don't exist?

R2: Who's gonna fix you
The next time you break down
Stranded alone by the side of the road
With your baggage that's dragging you down
Don't look back, let it go

Ooh-ooh
