

Shepherds Of Rot

Bonded By Blood

Scream for me from the depths of hell
Rising up with hate
The louder the better
Till my ears begin to bleed
Cause this is just what I need!

I can't hear you
From the left to right
The circle keeps turning so
Stand up and fight
I can't hear you
From the front to the back
As you're gasping for life
Slipped away in a panic attack

Get on your feet and raise your fist
As in a state of bliss
Scream as you rage
And break out of your cage
Cause silence is deafening!

I can't hear you
The circle keeps turning so
Stand up and fight
I can't hear you
From the front to the back
As you're gasping for life
Slipped away in a panic attack

Bleed for me as you take a breath
No time to hold your tongue
Let me hear you scream our name
Bonded By Blood we arise

I can't hear you
The circle keeps turning so
Stand up and fight
I can't hear you
From the front to the back
As you're gasping for life
Slipped away in a panic attack

I can't hear you
We can't hear you
I can't hear you
We can't hear you
I can't hear you
We can't hear you
Let me hear you
