

Blue Tile Lounge

Bones Brigade

Loosen your trucks and step right in
It's a feast of transition so let your board dig in High five, backside, rock n' roll, out of control
Had your fill of slashing, now you can be told

Cause this, this is the blue tile lounge
Were thrashing out of our minds
Cause this, this is the blue tile lounge
Let johnny rad be our guide

Sessioned the hotel pool and it's time to split
Skating radical on the hidden ramp we never quit
Shredding your best, always at top speed
Saddling up a denim demon on a 7-ply steed

Cause this, this is the blue tile lounge
We're thrashing out of our minds
Cause this, this is the blue tile lounge
Let johnny rad be our guide

The bones brigade is back to wreck the party
Ain't no way we're leavin, we're just gettin started
So don't be a chump, come join us now
Throw open the doors, grab a coke, it's the blue tile lounge
