Day 911

Bonfire

Honorable reasons, honorable aims The truth is out of season It's buried in the flames

Who goes to heaven and who goes to hell? No one has ever come back who could tell Death don't know justice or mercy at all Sinners and saints, both will fall

Do they all, do they all go to heaven Since that day 911? Do they all go to heaven Since that day 911?

Honorable soldiers, honorable fights No more understanding Civilized modern knights

Leaders and cheaters show signs of victory
They bring in the harvest of a dirty rotten seed
Exchange rate tor freedom is oil against blood
But who hears your cries in the flood?

Do they all, do they all go to heaven Since that day 911? Do they all go to heaven Since that day 911?
