Sleeping All Alone

Sitting here another night in television view seems like that's my only friend when I'm away from you Yeah, we had another fight about the other flame now you claim the candle died but I say it's the same You say I'm the only one now that just suits me fine you better treat me good 'cause I'm forgiving you this time CHORUS I'm sleeping all alone tell me you're coming home I'm sleeping all alone - tonight If I had a half a mind I'd kick you out the door and if I were an other guy I'd even up the score But you see I love you and a body has a will so please don't knock me in the heart I hope you had your thrill You know that you made mistakes and me I made some too so hurry home and ask me if I'm - television blue CHORUS I felt strong enough to play a tough man's game quit chasing after love that never'll be the same - with you See if you got your second chance and that's all that you get some guys wouldn't give you that you better watch your stand CHORUS
