

Your Eyes

BONNIE PINK

I'm dreaming
And in my dream, I see your eyes
They fill my heart with heaven
I'm flying
And in the sky, I see your eyes
They answer all my longing
For you

I've always lived my life in fantasy
No chance to take, no heart to break
But now you take my hand and,
You make me understand
That two dreams, can join together

It's morning
And as I wake, I see your eyes
They are my reason,
They are my answer now
Because I love you
The one who made my dreams come true

I've always lived my life in fantasy
No chance to take, no heart to break
But now you take my hand and,
You make me understand
That two dreams, can join together

It's morning
And as I wake, I see your eyes
They are my reason,
They are my answer now
Because I love you
The one who made my dreams come true
