

Time To Be Clear

Bonnie 'Prince' Billy

It's time to be clear, got news of his passing
And I'm struck singing here
I want to be on the wallpaper and swing from chandelier
Something to show that I know, it's time to be clear

I can handle what's given, I can make mystery mine
And sing it with feeling, with rhythm and rhyme
And make you all marvel at, this is your time
And holler, it's time to be clear

And stop all the moaning and emoting of fate
God isn't listening or else it's too late
This is your song and your song, it is great
We sing, it's time to be clear

Time to be clear and leave our old world
And build new stories here
Lover, oh lover, please buy me a beer
And bring all your enemies here
