

Little Superstar

Bonnie Tyler

I ran as fast as I could run
Threw off my stilettos, trying to get away.
I live in the building that was crumbling
In a desperate loveless ghetto where you don't go out to play

Oh so now you've found your way through the broken glass and endless days,
Discovered where I've lived
And oh there must be some divide because you are just in time to save me
From myself

So goodbye little superstar
So goodbye, you know who you are
So goodbye, little rocking queen
So goodbye you know what I mean
You know what I mean

My change the bridges that I've crossed
No one would believe me well now the kerosene
That day, I knew that I was lost
I was begging for forgiveness and the mirror said to me

Oh so now you've found your way through the broken glass and endless days,
Discovered where I've lived
And oh there must be some divide because you are just in time to save me
From myself

So goodbye little superstar
So goodbye, you know who you are
So goodbye, little rocking queen
So goodbye you know what I mean
You know what I mean
You know what I mean
You knooow what I mean! Oh
You know what I mean, little superstar, little superstar
