

Race to the Fire

Bonnie Tyler

Race to the fire
All the wheels are turning
All alone just in a lonely world
Yeah Baby

Maybe love is a lonely number
Can't you hear the wheels of thunder
They're driving deep into your heart
Feelings they'll never be torn apart

Maybe he's the man behind the wire
He's living in a world of fire
He sailed his ship alone
There's a heart but there's no home

R1: Race to the fire
All the wheels are turning
All alone just in a lonely world
Till the end of the time
He's fighting the crime
That's no lie, my baby

R2: Race to the fire
To the end of Eden
To the city of the lost and found
He is too proud to cry
Or too live with a lie
Take him seriously, baby

R3: Race to the fire (fire)
Race to the fire (fire)
Race to the fire
He's fighting for your rights
Race to the fire
Race to the fire (fire)
Race to the fire (fire)

Only the strong survive

Maybe he's goin' through the motions
There's a shadow of devotion
Its showin' his destiny
One minute past eternity

Oh maybe good things don't last forever
He's living just now or never
No mountain is high enough
Times are getting really tough

R1: Race to the fire...

R2: Race to the fire...

R3: Race to the fire (fire)...

Race to the fire
Fighting for your rights

Race to the fire
Time is on his side
Race to the fire
Two hearts collide
Race to the fire
There is no crime

R1: Race to the fire...
