

Stubborn

Bonnie Tyler

Loving you not easy, you make me fall to pieces
So many times the pieces just don't fit
I say I'm on my way out, the truth is I still stick around
Is it love or just a sick obsession

Like a pitbull under attack
I won't back down no I'll never make a turn
Cos when it comes to you I'm stubborn!
Like a fighter down for the count
I'll get back up and stand my ground, cos I'm not done
Cos when it comes to you I'm stubborn!

Loving you not easy, I tell you this sincerely
I guess it says more about me [?]
But sometimes you notice that your my only focus
No matter what you put me through

Like a pitbull under attack
I won't back down no I'll never make a turn
Cos when it comes to you I'm stubborn!
Like a fighter down for the count
I'll get back up and stand my ground, cos I'm not done
Cos when it comes to you I'm stubborn!

You know it's so wrong, I guess it's more I'll ever learn
I should be longer, longer!

Like a pitbull under attack

I dig my heels along the way, you and everyone says to one
Cos when it comes to you I'm STUBBOORN!

Like a pitbull under attack
I won't back down no I'll never make a turn
Cos when it comes to you I'm stubborn!
Like a fighter down for the count
I'll get back up and stand my ground, cos I'm not done
Cos when it comes to you I'm stubborn!
