

Red Dirt Road

Boondox

Pitch black red clay
Screams echo from the trees
Kudzu covers every living thing
And dead folks seen down by the side of the road
Voodoo chants to the echos and the squak of the crows
Yeah who knows just what you'll find on a midnight ride
If ya stoppin for a piss or if ya battery dies
You'll wanna keep on movin don't stop for a second
There's a thousand lost souls who fuckin learned that lesson
(Red dirt road)

(Red dirt road)
Somewhere past the old cemetary there's a place where evil death live
(Red dirt road)
The sun nevers shines and the Devil walks by this place ain't nothin to mess with
(Red Dirt Road)

You'll die
All alone where no one knows
So don't ride
Down that old red dirt road
Red dirt road

Blood chills and spills
Just like a liquid
And theree's somethin in the air that don't seem quite right
A red head dead bride floats by ya ride
A staind dress that once was bright white
Baby breathe and steps on ya window
While somethin invisibles screamin from a mossed shed
Decapitated spirit fade if ya near it
Then appears in ya backseat lookin for it's head

Somewhere past the old cemetary there's a place where evil death live
(Red dirt road)
The sun nevers shines and the Devil walks by this place ain't nothin to mess
with
(Red Dirt Road)

You'll die
All alone where no one knows
So don't ride
Down that old red dirt road
Red dirt road

suicide sollution the confusion
Many lost souls are restin pieces
Breezes blow through the trees
They grab the trigger and squeeze
Then let their spirits join the other deceased it pleases
The demons screamin needin more of the same
The necromicon is burned into this place like a flame
And its callin ya name the dirt road leads to Hell's gates
Welcome into the evil into death it's here Hell waits

Somewhere past the old cemetary there's a place where evil death live

The sun nevers shines and the Devil walks by this place ain't nothin to mess
