

One Of Them

Booze & Glory

He is one of them blokes who tells you that
He always toes the line
But over the years he provided to us
He is just a waste of time
Soon we'll see who was right
Which way he's gonna go
He is one of them twats who always thinks
That it's him who runs the show

He is a mug! He's always got something to say
Very brave in front of his PC
I'll tell you now , he better get out of my way
Pricks like him don't mean nothing to me

At one stage he was one of us
And he said he'll stay for good
About respect and loyalty
He didn't have a clue
And times have changed, this boys grew up
He is in a different boat
And all of us did realise
