

Sacrifice

Borealis

I need for you to hear these words Another angel
has fallen from grace

The love I never felt,
the scars I bared
All those words you said to me Did they satisfy your anger, and heal your misery

Where were you,
when I took my final steps
When I sacrificed it all,
you turned away from me
And I have no forgiveness, Nothing left

When your world
Begins to fall Bittersweet sense of loneliness
