

Why Are People Running

Boris

Everytime I take a step ahead into the future
Sometimes I'm still stuck on what's left behind
Everytime I think of what you said which had a meaning
Sometimes I keep thinking if you were right

Listen all together let us sing

Why are people running, why are people hiding
Why are people crying for this love

God please tell me what you've done in our world
It ain't strange we keep asking all the time
Lord please take your prophet and send him on
And we just keep on praying our hope ain't gone

Help me brotha, sista
