Future Reminiscence

Borknagar

The mysteries of a hidden past. Precession of the planetary relations. Cosmology, a linear or circular cast? Restitution of a genuine consciousness. Return to the haven of the first and the last.

Beware, stare towards the horizon new. Sear, tear the sensation of distant propinquity.

Through the secret moments I flew. As one among the very few.

The everlasting zero, a glimpse of a million. The forever million, yet a ubiquitous presence. Coronate the path of the Gods, the Elder.

I am a remnant of the forever origin. I am the soul of every phantom fallen. I am rising as I am falling, silent as calling.

"The precise prelude of the cataclysm". Apocalyptic visions of the future fall. The aberrant taste of the conceiving past. As a slave of the next moment of presence. The ones among the very few.

Restitution - summons the sight. Emancipation - circles in presence. Renunciation - for a new era to enlighten.
