Born from Pain

Plunging into length of days
Nothing can... erase the shadows ever deeper into me

Can't be redeemed, roots undenied

Never release, continuing the bloodline

Apathy a lonely master

Tempting given fate

One foot in the grave

Drench me in the blood Of what I call my own Cleansed in purgatory Defying all, I roam All but regret

But I'm not new to this trade

Can't be redeemed never release

Ever deeper...

Plunging into length of days

Nothing can... erase the shadows ever deeper into me

Plunging... Deeper... Plunging...

Deeper into me...
