

Kill It Tonight

Born from Pain

Looking back to find it
What was lost, faded grey
Thinking how the failed ways of my life haunt me today
Wasted years so empty
Wasted years to mourn
Taking life the harder way, too much that's dead and gone

Forgive me I tried
Forgive me I failed
But nothing could keep me here
In a place to close to home
I failed everyone that seemed to care
Forgive me I tried
Forgive me I failed
The bridges I've walked have burned
Didn't even know myself back then
Forgive me... I wasn't strong...

Kill it tonight
Ghost of the past
Kill it tonight
Kill it tonight
Take it away
Kill it tonight...
