

Raging Heart

Born from Pain

Pushed down to fit the mold
Raised to fit and fail Living, learning life in the shadows of what could have been Born dead Or so it's told, in your coffin you're laid Caged up, struggling, and tearing to break free
Fighting hard as nails

Time's just ticking away
Dreams die hard so make your way Nothing's flawless, nothing's easy, grab each chance to seize the day
No one's born to loose
Not with a will and a chance to choose
Focus clear, push it hard, live life for your truth

Breathe in this is your life
This is a brand new day Chances come and go in a lifetime take what comes your way
Rage now resurrect yourself
Take it all, make your stand Find the will inside, no one can be that in love with the end

Time ticks away
