

Morning Bath

Born Gold

I don't know how you work
I'd ask but you're not sure
I don't know how you look
In the mirror while heaving now

I don't know how you work
Some fevers have a cure
Your mouth's a gauzy blur
In the mirror while heaving now

Did you ever look away
The cavity our workday made
If you have a cruel complaint
Say it, just say it

Did you ever look away
Our office with our coffin laid
If you wish that things would change
Say it, just say it

I don't know how you work
I'd say but i'm not sure
I don't know how you look
In the mirror while heaving now

I don't know how you work
Some fevers have a cure
Your mouth's a gauzy blur
In the mirror while heaving now

Did you ever look away
The cavity our habits made
If you have a cruel complaint
Say it, just say it

Did you ever look away
Our office with our coffin laid
Did you ever wish that things would change
Say it, just say it

Say it, just say it
Say it, just say it
Say it, just say it
