

i don't want to live without it i don't want to think about it i don't want to feel my skin unlace
its skates

i don't want to chew my tooth chips i just want to boil the head till it's sparkling and see through like we'd hoped we were

what a weary way we fall
we're as old as emeralds

i don't want to think about it
its skates

i don't want to live
