

Aeon III

Born of Osiris

Rise
lift from your informal lives the sun will come to us to provide as we form from the ashes burn, reborn
this century will thrive

the divine mother of earth showed us the way - gave us birth provided us with reason gave pure life clarity but the truth of conception lied in able man so the age of the pleasant fell from the mothers hand a new generation born resurrected as the sun
a new aeon has begun

surrender to the gods as you flow through the river of the sky come forth and display the proof of your innocences to the judge of souls will you pass to the judge of souls the secret of death is revealed complete emergence into affirmation of the born less one

the insight of man's word:
destroy the light, shade the earth but our sun, resurrected gives new life on this world
