

Transistions From Persona To Object

Botch

Wide eyes help you stand out and the fact that you bare all skin | Silhouettes keep me thinking about the habits you are in | Watch us blanket all things and solidify all claims | Hopes dreams we're here to make ourselves better | Time to build our colony | There's no stopping it now conquest is at hand | And the thirst for more and the need for more go on | Never satisfied never dormant we go one | See us conquer all the humans that are left | This is our new home and we're still building
