

Pour On Rain

Bourbon Crow

5:30AM

I couldn't sleep
You were dancing in my dreams
I woke up, and you weren't there
I got up, i needed some air
I walk outside i saw the clouds
Above our broken home and i yelled
Pour on rain, pour on

Pulled out your pictures
Remembered everything
Oh that blue dress on new year's eve
All the good times, and all the bad
Everything i wish i had back
I turn on the radio to a good ol'
Heartbreak song, and i yell

Pour on rain, pour on

And i can't help but wonder where this all went wrong
And i yell...pour on rain, pour on
