

Bright Future

Bowerbirds

Bright future
Bright pink
Bright light in my eyes
All these desert cities

Giant heart
Down in this dust
Fell to the earth
At a fascinating speed

Further up
In the ponderosa
The nervous cayuse cat awailin'
Their choruses foreboding

Couldn't you've stayed on the ground
Couldn't you've stayed on your feet

But your mind was wound so tightly
Always bold and wise and unsettling
I live in your tall trees amongst your fearless leaves
Saw the bright colors, bright future

The night is patient
The night's a glass dome
The night is still and cold
But this desert can turn

Your restless mind
Was born in a flash
And you lived in these clouds
With light day in your feet

Yes your mind was wound so tightly
Always bold and wise and unsettling
I live in your tall trees amongst your fearless leaves
Saw the bright colors, bright future
