Bowling For Soup

1. Everybody knows if you've got the coolest clothes you've got everybody on your side Anyone can see if you hang around with me you'll be by yourself on friday night

R: It's hard to understand
If you never lose you never learn to want to win
When it all comes down all around you now Don't let it bring you down

2. You had all the moves you had all the coolest doos and you always had the coolest car I never learned to dance, I had hair down to my ass and now I'm gonna be a Rock Star

*: Raise your hands
Stomp your feet
I love everyone and now they love me
