

I know you don't come from here Believe me i'm very aware and i'm sorry
You were a sad little girl Who got caught up in this world
And i'm sorry
sorry, because we're sorry all the time

You think you're everything some broken-hearted martyr queen
The reason for the setting sun Believe me you're the only one (only one)

She's the only one who knows so off the little queenie goes to flaunt her ill-begotten diamonds and her elevated nose
My numbers in her pocket, told her call me up sometime Now there's just no pleasin queenie, since queenie lost her mind (2x)

I tried to write a song to rule out all the wrong
And i'm sorry
see girl let's go on a date to a movie or rollerskate
And i'm sorry
Better luck next time

You think you're everything some broken-hearted disco queen
The reason for the setting sun,
believe me you're the only one

She's the only who knows
so off the little queenie goes
to flaunt her ill-begotten diamonds
and her elevated nose
My numbers in her pocket
told her call me up sometime
now there's just no pleasin queenie,
since queenie lost her mind (2x)

She's the only oe who knows
so off the little queenie goes
to flaunt her ill-begotten diamonds
and her elevated nose
My numbers in her pocket
now there's just no pleasin queenie, since queenie lost her mind
