

Shut-Up and Smile

Bowling For Soup

Its not the end of the world
In fact its not even the end of the summer But thank god the tv is on Cuz theres no way we could know Anything that's goin down Or how were supposed to be feeling about it I cant tell you how much I wish we could shut up and smile, yeah

Sail around the world and tell them all to keep singing it
la la la la la la
all we needs a harmony and we'll convince the world to sing
la la la la la la
throw your arms around someone (throw your arms around someone)
maybe spread a little love
I know it sounds a little dumb (or maybe I'm a little drunk)
But all we need is some ice cream and a hug

Take a good look around Does life really suck
Are we just complaining I hope that this mic is on (testing 1, 2) Cuz im on a roll here
I hope this is making some sense
I hope that you'll throw up your hands and sing it And tell all the haters that they should just shut up and smile, yeah

Sail around the world and tell them all to keep singing it
la la la la la la
all we needs a harmony and we'll convince the world to sing
la la la la la la
throw your arms around someone (throw your arms around someone)
maybe spread a little love
I know it sounds a little dumb (or maybe I'm a little drunk)
But all we need is some ice cream

All we need is love and beer
And old school metal and holiday cheer
TO be happy (All you need is someone near) like ben and jerry (to hold you close and pretend that they care) can we all just, get along now we found something that we all have in common now we can hold hands, do keg stands water skiing sounds great to me now

Sail around the world and tell them all to keep singing it
la la la la la la
all we needs a harmony and we'll convince the world to sing
la la la la la la
throw your arms around someone (throw your arms around someone)
maybe spread a little love
I know it sounds a little dumb (or maybe we're a little drunk)
But all we need is some ice cream and a hug

(Chanting "All we need is love and beer")

all we need is some ice cream and a hug
all we need is some ice cream and a hug
all we need is some ice cream and a hug
