

She got a valentine from Gary
I opened it up it said, "Would you please be mine."
I gave her flowers and some candy
She opened them up and said, "You're trying to make me fat."
(now)

I just want a new girlfriend
I just want someone to make me laugh
I just want a new girlfriend
I just want someone to laugh at me not to smart, not to tall
likes to watch TV and play basketball

I bought a car and let her drive it
She opened the door and said, "Oh bother, this is red."
I gave her all my notes from algebra
She opened em up and said, "I can't believe you're so stupid."

I won't ever make her wash my car, NO!
I won't ever take a walk, not unless she's there.
Oh, oh, oh, oh!
