

Spooky Truth

Boy George

Come on down and meet yourself
All your former glory
You should know the rules by now
That's another story
Can I look beyond your promises
To where my future lies
Can I rise to your dishonesty
Too much compromise
This is the spooky truth
Ain't no hope ain't no use
This is the spooky truth
And my heart won't be denied
One more night
There's no use denying
We can write the ending now
All the tears and the frustration
All the why, and what, and how
Can I look into the future
See your spirits rise
Can
We advise on truth and passion
All our sorry lies
This is the spooky truth
Ain't no hope ain't no use
This is the spooky truth
Ain't no love ain't no proof
This is the spooky truth
And my heart won't be denied
One more night
