

Mr. Loh

Boy Hits Car

As I can see the ocean breaking
The ocean breaks on her self
It will remind me that all the shit I'm feeling
Will soon be, will be alright, it's gonna be alright

Mr. Loh, he finds the water
And it seems to wash this place off
As the dolphins jump and play

He speaks to us in the sand
Do you know the meaning of life
Or are you just a simple man?
And then he swims away
Then he swims away

Mr. Loh, will you speak to me?
You're the only one I understand
Mr. Loh, will you sing to me?
You're the only one who makes sense

Mr. Loh's not afraid to be naked
But some men fall from grace
They're not secure with themselves

He doesn't measure people
By things we consider important
Can't seem to comprehend today
So he swims away, he swims away
Come back

Mr. Loh, will you speak to me?
You're the only one I understand
Mr. Loh, will you sing to me?
You're the only one who makes sense

Contact with nature, now that's very important
All in society is so busy, busy, busy, busy
Not much time
Talk to yourself or talk to the nature

As long as I can see the ocean break on her self
As the dolphins jump and play
It will remind me, that all the shit I'm feeling
Will soon be alright

Mr. Loh, will you speak to me?
You're the only one I understand
Mr. Loh, will you sing to me?
You're the only one who makes sense

Oh Mr. Loh, oh Mr. Loh
This is gonna be alright
