

Tonight

Boy Hits Car

Let's go
Cause there's nothing left to lose
And I believe deeply in myself as in you
With every word I infuse!
Right!
Alive
Tonight

Come on gather round let's sing a song
Take my hand and we can come a full Circle cause it has been far to long
Will you show me the way cause I've been Lost
Life comes with a cost
Oh no
oh ho ho

Wanna lose my mind
The absence of time
Dreamed of this moment
For most of my life!

All that matters is we are here tonight
You and me as the light of the new day shines
All that matters is we are here tonight
Feeling so free as our hearts will scream inside
Tonight

Have to run away from all the pain
Get away before it catches me
Show me how to release yesterday
Where my love turned a resentful gray
So tonight I will stay.
Oh no
Oh ho ho

Wanna lose my mind
The absence of time
Dreamed of this moment
For most of my life!

All that matters is we are here tonight
You and me as the light of a new day shines
All that matters is we are here tonight
Feeling so free as our hearts will scream inside
Oh scream inside
Oh scream inside

Tonight
Whoa-no
Oh-ho-ho

Wanna lose my mind
The absence of time
Dreamed of this moment
For most of my life!

All that matters is we are here tonight

You and me as the light of the new day shines
All that matters is we are here tonight
Feeling so free as our hearts will scream inside

Let love shine bright
Absense of night
As love burns bright
We will survive

Alive
Tonight
Can't stop
This light
