

A Ok

Boy Kill Boy

Fee fi fo fum, she said
Something's wrong
Is this just a breakdown'
Yes, another breakdown
And when you're gone
Yes, she said
Can I come'
I never want to break up
She never wants to break up, no
I never want to wake up
I never meant to wake up

And now we've left our friends behind
Even so, isn't this a waste of time
Giving me a friendly line'
And when our thoughts just last a day
Even so, isn't this the price I pay'
Everything is A-OK

And if I fall down, she said,
And I call
Would you come to catch me'
Only time could stop me
And if it goes wrong, she said
If we try, maybe we could make up
Yes, I'd love to make up
I need to make time
I really need to find time

Even so, isn't this a waste of time
Giving me a friendly line'
And when our thoughts just last a day
Even so, isn't this the price I pay'
Everything is A-OK

I'm gone, most the time
And I'm lost all of the rest
I'm gone, most the time
And I'm lost all of the rest
I'm gone, most the time
And I'm lost all of the rest

I'm waiting, I'm waiting,
I'm waiting for this,
I've been waiting for this

Even so, isn't this a waste of time'
Giving me a friendly line
And when our thoughts just last a day
Even so, isn't this the price I pay'
Everything is A-OK

Such a waste of time
Such a friendly line

It's the price I pay
Everything's A-OK
