

Kidda - Kidda

Boy Kill Boy

Gone, missing are the lost and lonely eyes Well, isn't that to come as no surprise
Well it came to me
Sunlight, begging me to leave this room and grow
And the carpet, leading us to God knows who might know
It waits for you,
and it waits for me too

That's just the way it goes
Stars won't tell me how I move
It's all just a matter of time
and it waits for me,
and it waits for you too

So, isn't it a wonder no one knows?
The code, entry to the cold and empty soul
Well it came to me
Starlight, begging me to leave
this room and grow
And the streetlights, leading us
to God knows who might know
It waits for you,
and it waits for me too

That's just the way it goes,
Stars won't tell me how I move,
It's all just a matter of time,
and that's just the way I feel,
Fools won't fool me now I know,
it's all just a matter of time,
And it waits for me
And it waits for you too

That's just the way it goes,
Stars won't tell me how I move,
It's all just a matter of time,
and that's just the way I feel,
Fools won't fool me now I know,
it's all just a matter of time,
And it waits for me
And it waits for you too
