

No Apologies

Boy Meets Girl

You want to give me everything
Captivate me with a pretty ring
Love should be easy, this is what you say

You treat me like the sweetest thing
But I know you're gonna clip my wings
No more romancin', no more carefree dancin'
After you've made your claim you've made your claim

I want to break free with no apologies, oh, oh
I want to break free with no apologies, oh, oh

I love the soul behind your smile
Until you place my heart on trial
You want me to swear, life begins and ends here

Your love really drives me wild
And I think we could be reconciled
'Til I remember, if I surrender
I set all my dreams aside set them aside

I want to break free with no apologies, oh, oh
I want to break free with no apologies, oh, oh

I don't want your shelter I'm breaking free
And right now this matters so much to me

You want to give me everything
Captivate me with a pretty ring
Love should be easy, this is what you say

You treat me like the sweetest thing
But I know you're gonna clip my wings
No more romancin', no more carefree dancin'
After you've made your claim you've made your claim

I want to break free with no apologies, oh, oh
I want to break free with no apologies, oh, oh
