Boyce Avenue

After years of deception
And your broken roads
There will be no rejection
From my heart to yours

So show me hope
And show me fear
From your heart that's beating
You're not alone in your tears
Cause we're lovers fleeting
And the world is sleeping

I'll be, I'll be,
Your family
When your times get hard
And I'll see, I'll see,
You next to me
When the road gets dark

And my heart is the exception
To the pain you know
So don't fear your reflection
When I hold you close

So show me hope
And show me fear
From your heart that's beating
You're not alone in your tears
Cause we're lovers fleeting
And the world is sleeping

This promise I'm keeping

I'll be, I'll be,
Your family
When your times get hard
And I'll see, I'll see,
You next to me
When the road gets dark

So dream on
And begin
Your days with laughter
Cause your story will end
Happy ever after

And I'll be, I'll be
Your family
When your times get hard

So if they pull you under
And they steal your wonder
I'll be the hand you can hold

And when the lights are fading
I hope you're ready, yeah, to love
In your soul

And the will to let go
In all

Cause I'll be, I'll be
Your family
You next to me
When your road, when your road gets dark

So dream on
And begin

And I'll be, I'll be
Your family

I'll be, I'll be

Your family

I'll be, I'll be

Your family

So dream on
And begin
