

Tonight

Boys

Well I think I'd better warn you
'Bout the kids on the corner tonight
Cos the human jungle's gonna see some rumble tonight

We'll be ripping up the seats
Runnin' wild in the streets tonight

Better start runnin' when you hear us coming tonight
Better lock away your daughters
'Cos there's gonna be a slaughter tonight

Don't care if it's wrong
Don't care if it's right
I'll do what I want tonight... so look out
