Ain't a Thang Wrong

Its 11:45 Gang of Escalades parked outside Big bladess chromed up with shine Only one thing on my mind All week I've been a slave to the grind Tonight I'm tryin' to have a good time Rollin' wiht my whole crew behind me To the livest hot spot we find

Haters step out my way 'Cause a playa just wanna play No occasion to celebrate But I'm gon' do it anywat Line outside but I don't wait Roll through the door but I don't pay Lettin' go man I just can't wait No more further delay Time to get it on my people

Ain't a thang wrong with having a good time Ain't a thang wrong eith getting it on tonight Woo, woo, wwo fel alright Leave the bullshit way behind 'Cause its party time

Making my way inside See a honey by the bar that looks tight Told her to order anything she likes 'Causeshe looks just that nice, yeah After two drinks or more I took her hand and moved to the floor I handle mine, baby handle yours 'Cause I'm a make it hot for sure Time to get it on my people

I wanna see you dancing on the floor Hands in the air like you don't care no more Because tonighr we're gon' all out fa sho Nothin' else on my mind You know it party time, party time
