

Already Gone

Boyz II Men

I, I can't begin to apologize
For all the crazy shit I said last night
There's no happy endin'
I, I never saw it from your side
I might be stubborn and I must be blind not to see you for me

Oh, and it hurts like hell
I never wanted to be by myself
I try to comeback runnin'
I try to comeback runnin'
I'm tryin' to comeback but its 2 late
Cuz I know that you'd be

Already gone, you're already gone
Baby, come back, don't turn away, away from me
I want you back, but its 2 late
I know you'd be
Already gone, you're already gone
Baby, come back, don't turn away, away from me
Try to comeback, but its 2 late
You're already gone

Why? Why did I take so long to try?
I give it all the time I hands out time
Acted the beginnin', oh

And it hurts like hell
I never wanted to be by myself
I try to comeback runnin'
I try to comeback runnin'
I'm tryin' to comeback but its 2 late
Cuz I know that you'd be

Already gone, you're already gone
Baby, come back, don't turn away, away from me
I want you back, but its 2 late
I know you'd be
Already gone, you're already gone
Baby, come back, don't run away, away from me
Try to comeback, but its 2 late
You're already gone

I wish I could be where you are
Id someday I'll be
I'll be right there back in your arms
Cuz I know that you'd be

Already gone, you're already gone
Baby, come back, don't turn away, away from me
I want you back, but its 2 late
I know you'd be
Already gone, you're already gone
Baby, come back, don't run away, away from me
Try to comeback, but its 2 late
You're already gone
