Whoa

I lie in bed but I can't sleep On the ledge but I can't leap Even doing nothing is so hard to do To do On my tongue but I can't speak The simple things are sometimes deep I only hope that this means something to you To you I want to spend my life with you right by my side Cause when you kiss my lips I see lighting in the sky That's like One step forward and two steps back Cause love is like a hurricane When you're with me I'm on track We're riding on the crazy train I'll be fine If you're mine at the end of the line Butterflies I want to keep I try to laugh but I just weep There's something about you gets me just so deep inside, inside I want to spend tonight just looking in your eyes I feel like a millionaire but I don't have a dime It's like one step forward and two steps back Love is like a hurricane When you're with me I'm on track We're riding on the crazy train I'll be fine If you're mine at the end of the line Let me love you Won't you let me love you Won't you You got me lovin you yeah you got me loving you Oh you got me loving you Girl you got me loving you One step forward and two steps back You're love is like a hurricane When you're with me I'm on track We're riding the crazy train I'll be fine If you're mine at the end of the line
