

Rise

Boyzone

When it's easy, when it's all good
When we have way more than we should
Our grass is greener than green

But when it turns and easy gets hard
That's when we see who we are
Keep on because we believe

We give, we take
We bend, we break
We win, we lose, we try
We climb, we fall
We take it all
We bruise, we bleed, we fight
Then we rise

In-between the black and the white
In-between the wrong and the right
There's a hassle full to be found

If we open up our arms and forgive
Count up all our reasons to live
Maybe we could turn this around

We give, we take
We bend, we break
We win, we lose, we try
We climb, we fall
We take it all
We bruise, we bleed, we fight
Then we rise

We will take the higher road
And we will because we know
That it's right and it's just
And we'll fight if we must
And rise

We give, we take
We bend, we break
We win, we lose, we try
We climb, we fall
We take it all
We bruise, we bleed, we fight
Then we rise
Then we rise
Then we rise
Then we rise
