

Gone Baby Gone

Boz Scaggs

Tell you where its at
Ain't nobody crying now Cept for me
But it always mattered to me, yeah
Lost your head, life is dead
So please
Don't come singing that sad song any more
Cause it just doesn't matter to me

Find another fantasy, yeah
Go on fly, fly back to your flame
Just a game I ain't playing
So please
You won't be running that game on me no more
Cause you're gone baby gone to me
You ain't coming back cause you're gone baby gone to me

Right back where its at
Find another fantasy
As you fly
Fly back to your flame
Lost your game, no one playing
So please
Won't be running that game around here no more
Cause you're gone baby
To me
You ain't coming back back cause you're gone baby gone
To me
You ain't coming back cause you're gone baby gone
