

He's A Fool For You

Boyz Scaggs

Day after day
He goes out of his way
Cos he knows you're gonna be there
And if he doesn't say too much
At least he keeps in touch to show his care

And it ain't like he never loved before
And it ain't like he'll never love no more
Just some day maybe he'll find some way baby
To turn you around

He may just be right
Why is he so in love with you
Why can't he find something better to do

But it ain't what he loves you for
No it ain't that you got so much more
It's just that sometimes someone
Got to play the dumb one to get along
And you may just get along

My my my my
He's a fool for you
No one else will do

Laugh and be gay ooh
You look so nice that way
You know you'll get a smile
Wear a ribbon in your hair
And he'll notice that it's there
It's just his style

You just state your case and sing the song
And you take it as it comes along
Who knows some day maybe
You'll take a look out baby and find you care

And I know you'll be there hey hey
My my my my
He's a fool for you
No one else will do

My my my my
He's a fool for you
No one else will do
